

SCHOOL DIRECTORS AND PATRONS CLASH IN LOWER TYRONE TWP.

Faction in the School Board Desires to Abandon Oakdale School House Against the Wishes of the People.

TWENTY FIVE PUPILS ATTEND.

At a hearing yesterday quo warranto proceedings were started to oust Director Cunningham from his seat on the board.

An interesting hearing yesterday was held at Oakdale school house in Lower Tyrone township, where testimony was taken by Inspector Lee Smith, as to the advisability of closing the school or compelling the School Board of that district to keep it open.

As a result of the hearing quo warranto proceedings will be started to oust J. Byron Cunningham from the Board. It is alleged that the Board was tied over the question of abandoning or keeping school open. Special meetings were called but O. F. McNeely, a member of the Board, could not attend owing to sickness. His faction also stayed away. Henry Davis, the president of the board, then declared his seat vacant and Cunningham was elected. It is claimed that the proceedings were illegal from the fact that the action could not be taken at a special meeting.

The hearing yesterday developed that there was about an equal number for and against the abandoning of the school. It was shown that there were 25 pupils attending the school, and that it was abandoned in number of the children would have to go a considerable distance to the Quaker school. Attorney Smith has no specified time to make his report to the court, but it is likely that it will be made as quickly as possible in order to settle the difficulty before the opening of the school term. Attorney E. C. Higgins represented the citizens opposed to the abandonment of the school and Attorney W. C. McKean represented the School Directors.

THE ECHO OF A VIOLIN.

Shaw Hides Instrument of a Gypsy Troubadour and Has to Pay the Costs of a Hearing for His Fun.

A Slavish ball in New Haven rarely ever passes into history without an echo of it being heard in the magistrate's court, but the one given in the hill last night came very near missing that distinction, having passed with merrymaking at the hall and without disturbances until 5 o'clock this morning.

The Hungarian Gypsy orchestra of six pieces waited about the hall until almost the train time and several Slavish men also stayed with them. Then they all came to Connelville and stopped at the Kelly Hotel to get a drink. Here is where the trouble occurred which landed Josh Speck of Trotter, before Magistrate Frank Miller, charged by L. Rinkoel with having stolen his violin. When the plaintiff went to get a drink someone took his violin, evidently in fun and he could not locate it.

Suspicion fell upon Speck because he was overheard to say that he intended to steal the instrument. After searching about the hotel for a long time Rinkoel became angry; the joke a serious aspect, and the information was made against Speck. He was arrested and the hearing held before Magistrate Frank Miller. There was no evidence against the defendant except that he was overheard to say that he would steal the violin. He denied vehemently that he did it, but thought another Slavish man whom he did not know took it.

The trial was dragging along and Magistrate Miller was endeavoring to get something authentic out of the witnesses when Joe Follock walked in and said the violin had been found in a closet covered with a paper. A general laugh arose and several of the foreigners were delegated to go after the violin. It was identified by the owner and the Magistrate imposed the costs upon the defendant, who violently declared that he would not pay "bloody costs." He changed his mind after a committee of citizens went out for him to go to jail and worked over $4.75 costs. If it was Speck's joke, it was rather costly after a night of such pleasant memories.

UNIONTOWN, Aug. 20.—W. and P. M. Semans were presented with a beautiful silver loving cup at a dinner given at the Country Club, by M. H. Bowman. Messrs. Semans recently took a distinguished party of Uniontown men on an automobile trip to Hot Springs, Va., and points south and the loving cup was presented to them as a mark of esteem and appreciation.

SUES RAILROAD.

Dunbar Man Wants Damages for Occupation of His Land.

UNIONTOWN, Aug. 20.—William Pressae of Dunbar has entered suit against the Payette County Railroad Company, better known as the P. & C. R. branch of the B. & O., to recover $5,000 damages he alleges to have sustained. He states that the company appropriated a strip of property owned by him in Dunbar, 500 feet long and 18 feet wide, and has entered upon it with a railroad track.

The value of the land is not so much a question as the fact that it has damaged his house and lot and rendered it in his opinion practically valueless. The track runs close to his property and he further alleges that the company destroyed a valuable spring from which he drew his supply of water. Carr & Carr represent him.

POLICE RAID OLD CEMETERY

And Break Up the Orgy of Several Men and Women.

HOGG PLOT CITIZENS COMPLAIN.

Drunk Man Gets into Sleeping Chamber of Mrs. John Guiler and Officers Are Called at Night to Capture Supposed Burglar.

The police made a cemetery raid last night, catching two men, who left $7 in forfeits and did not return for a hearing before Burgess Solson. The residents of Hogg's Addition complained to the police last night that there was a crowd of men in Chestnut Hill Cemetery with two women and that they were acting scandalously.

The complaints from this section of town are made almost nightly, but the distance is so great that the crowd usually seems to the officers before they can come up with them. Last night, however, the police managed to catch two men; the women escaped.

Burgess Solson is considering the advisability of stationing one man in this district permanently, but this will reduce the town force and he does not feel that a man can be spared from the district all the time. However, a great deal more attention will be paid to the section after the close of this week.

Thomas Flaherty, an iron worker of Pittsburgh, who boards on Peach street, mistook the residence of John Guiler for his domicile and walked into the house, going to Mrs. Guiler's bed room last evening, and badly frightening her. The family thought it was a burglar and quickly telephoned for police. Flaherty had been drinking and as the neighborhood was a strange one to him he became muddled. His employer appeared for him and the case was not pushed against him after it was explained to Mr. Guiler. He was released.

John Connolly, of Indian Creek, has a 72 hour sentence to serve as a result of being drunk and acting improperly near the Pennsylvania depot. O. L. Hoffman, a structural iron worker, was released this morning after spending the night in the lockup, at the request of his foreman. He went on a better yesterday and came around to the Second National Bank building where he thought he was bossing the men, annoying them so that they could not do their work.

JAIL CROWDED.

Many Prisoners at Uniontown Have Sleep on the Floor.

UNIONTOWN, Aug. 20.—The county jail is so crowded with prisoners that it is necessary for about 20 prisoners to sleep on the floor almost every night. Last night 20 prisoners made their couch upon the floors and on Tuesday night there were 30 without beds. It is believed that conditions will not improve until after the September term of court. Sheriff Peter A. Johns is doing the best he can under the circumstances and is endeavoring to make the prisoners as comfortable as possible with the limited funds.

Last night the register showed a total of 150 prisoners incarcerated. Since August there have been 255 names entered upon the register.

BIG PARADE OF PYTHIAN KNIGHTS AT NOON FILLED THE TOWN WITH COLOR AND MUSIC.

Connellsville Lady Honored With Election to Important Office in the Pythian Sisters. Outing at Shady Grove This Afternoon.

All of yesterday afternoon's session of the State Convention of the Knights of Pythias was taken up in the reading and discussing of reports and the adopting of resolutions of a secret nature. The convention officials state that this week requires a great deal of time, but it is not of a nature in which the public would be interested.

There was no business session today, the entire morning being taken up in the details and arranging for the parade. Many companies of the United States Army and other military units participated in the parade, a special train having been run out over the Baltimore & Ohio from Pittsburgh to carry the visitors.

Friday's session will be a very important one to the members of the order, as all business will be completed on this day, and the selection of the next meeting place made. William Barre seems to be the favored place for holding next year's session, although New Castle is having a strong claim to having the meeting. A most deal of today will be devoted by the delegates to winning over supporters for the various towns who want the convention and on Friday a vote will be taken. It is expected that practically all of the work of the convention will be completed at noon Friday. There are no additional officers to elect, as the grand officers are elected by a system of rotation in office from year to year, and are not elected at the annual gatherings.

Crowds lined the streets this morning when the big parade of the Uniform Rank of the Knights of Pythias marched over the streets of town. On the parade the parade did not start at the appointed time, 11 o'clock, but was delayed until about 12. The first, third, fourth and sixth regiments of Pennsylvania were represented, altogether about 400 of the California Rank men being in line.

Marching in front of the entire parade, Connellsville had two representatives, Chief of Police B. Hattler with two officers, mounted. Following them was the local Tenth Regiment Band, J. M. Reichard of Pittsburgh, Brigadier General, commanding the entire Uniform Rank of Pennsylvania, Grand Lodge officers A. S. Sweeney, Grand Guard, George Hoffman; Grand Outer Guard, William Ford.

A carriage representing Homestead Lodge No. 475, advertising the Pythians' Home Outing at Coulter followed the Grand Lodge officer, then the Eagle Band of 18 pieces from McKeesport, the Third Regiment, and other bands and regiments. White Star Lodge No. 15, Captain William Frank Pittsburg; T. J. Wilson Lodge No. 4, Captain Wm. J. Perree, Vice Elizabeth; Plutarch Lodge No. 51, Captain C. N. Scoops, Dravestown, Washington Valley Lodge No. 10, Captain C. H. Beard, Star Junction; Connellsville Lodge No. 28, Captain H. S. McConnell, Connellsville.

After the third regiment came the staff officers of the first regiment followed by the Tenth Regiment Drum corps and the regular marching order. Following are the companies: Tenth Valley Lodge No. 12, George M. Friend, Captain, Clonville, Vanderburg; Algonquin Lodge No. 11, Captain A. E. Kunze, McKeesport; Indian Queen Lodge No. 15, Captain H. J. Parkas, McKeesport; O. K. Phillips Lodge No. 31, Captain F. E. Morris, New Freeport.

Following to the men high up in the Pythian world who were on the staff of Brigadier General J. M. Reichard, Chief of Staff, Col. J. Leslie McLeod of New Castle, Asst. Judge Advocate General, Colonel Julius E. Perree of Philadelphia, Brigadier Mastering Officer Colonel Tony Sassano of McKeesport, Asst. Camp Major Alder Campbell Major Morris Nossanoff of Pittsburgh, Asst. Camp Major Louis F. Klotz of Pittsburgh.

All roads will lead to Shady Grove Park this afternoon, where the closing festivities of the great Knights of Pythias convention week will be held. From an early hour this morning all West Penn trolley cars to the popular picnic grounds at Shady Grove will be crowded. Manager R. S. Boyle of the park has employed an extra force, and this, with the assistance of the committee of Knights of Pythias who have been delegated to look after the welfare of the crowd, will be sufficient. Extra trolley cars have been put on from Connellsville to the park, which will ensure the safety of transportation of the crowds from here. It has also been necessary to put on extra cars from Uniontown, as the people from the county seat are turning out in masses.

The object of this afternoon's procession is to bring all of the Knights of Pythias and their friends into closer touch with each other. Of course, there will be speechmaking, but the time taken up with the lights of ceremony will be short and the entire afternoon will be taken up largely with merrymaking. The roller-coaster, the lagoon, the merry-go-round and other park amusements are running full blast this morning. The dancing pavilion with the famous Shady Grove Orchestra will be the Mecca for many pleasure seekers. Extra help has been hired to prevent any disorder.

No set time has been made for the speaking but it will probably be held some time in the afternoon. The parade at the park. Grand Chancellor George W. Allen of Pittsburgh will make the chief address of the day. Incoming Grand Chancellor James L. Watkins of Scranton, Representative S. R. Jackson of Pittsburgh and O. E. Kilne of Pittsburgh will also make addresses. This number will later be supplemented by other prominent Knights who will have something to say. A concerted effort was made to secure Henry P. Brown, Supreme Chancellor of all the Knights of Pythias in the United States but circumstances made it impossible for the highest man in the Pythian world to be present.

President instructions point to plenty of music for the afternoon. Four bands and two drum corps will be on hand to make merry. The Tenth Regiment Band, which has been accompanying the town all morning will be the most important musical organization there. The Dunbar Concert Band arrived in town this morning and will go to Shady Grove this afternoon. The McKeesport delegation which landed in town late this morning, brought a band with them, which will be on hand while the delegation from West Newton, Starville and Perryopolis called a band and brought it along. Carr's company which was in prominence during the Centennial two years ago, was out last night parading the streets and the McKeesport Drum Corps composed of entirely boys under fifteen will be on hand.

Two hundred and eighteen Knights arrived this morning at had just ten o'clock. The parade will be a most important feature. The Pythian excursion arrived late and brought in the neighborhood of five hundred. The West Virginia Knights have nothing to do with the Pennsylvania State convention, but are joining in the general merry making.

RACED ON SUNDAY.

Six Vanderbilt Boys Fined for Practicing for Sporting Events in Sunday School Picnic.

Special to The Courier.

VANDERBILT, Pa., Aug. 20.—Six boys, members of prominent families here, were fined for practicing for Sunday school picnic. On Sunday they decided to get into practice for the Sunday School outing, and ran some foot races. The boys are Frank McFarland, Lindsey McFarland, Charles Shallenberger, John Shallenberger, Otis Porter and William Meigs.

After the races the six boys were arrested by Constable Richard Harshman and taken before Burgess Solson, who fined them on the charge of breaking the Sabbath laws, and each was fined $5.50, which included the costs. Charles Shallenberger paid the fine, but the others decided to serve out the sentence. The five were committed to the lockup, and for a few hours enjoyed the predicament, but later decided to pay, which they did. The boys were members of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Christian Sunday Schools.

The following were later given a hearing on the same charges, and all were discharged with the exception of Clark Newman, a nephew of Burgess Fowler P. Newman, who entered a plea of guilty before the hearing. Daniel Bailey, Daniel Hannan, Harry Hittington, F. N. Kelly and Alex Rutz.

BIRD DOGS POISONED.

Attorney P. S. Newmyer Loses Three More Valuable Pets.

Attorney P. S. Newmyer has been in his wrath and has sworn vengeance upon the party or parties that poisoned three fine bird dogs for him last night. Several of Mr. Newmyer's dogs have been poisoned before, but the subscribers never sent three of them to dog heaven at one time.

Birds being animals of value the dogs were particularly pets and their loss is felt keenly. There is no clue to the person who committed the deed, but Attorney Newmyer says if he ever gets a clue he will run it to earth, and from this emphatic manner he would endeavor to make a case strong enough to hang the guilty. A fine collie, known to all the South Staters as "Jack" and owned by Mr. Newmyer, was recently poisoned.

OLD RESIDENT PASSES AWAY.

Joseph Crop of Dunbar Township Died Last Night at 7 O'clock.

HE WAS 82 YEARS OF AGE.

Was a Brother of Well Known Local Citizen and Widely Known for His Deeds of Unselfish Charity—His Life Story.

After an illness of two weeks, Joseph Crop, aged 82 years, one of the oldest and most widely known residents of Dunbar township, passed away last evening shortly after 7 o'clock at his late home near Dunbarville. Mr. Crop had been in delicate health for the past several years, but had been confined to his bed for only the past two weeks. Death was due to a collection of diseases. Funeral tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the family residence, Rev. H. J. Hanna of Dawson will officiate. Interment in Dickerson Run Cemetery.

Deceased was the son of George and Nancy Elmer Crop, who at their time were prominent residents of Dunbar township. He was born in Dunbar township June 19, 1828. He passed all his life in the township with the exception of several years which he spent in Brownsville. Mr. Crop was a blacksmith by trade, but for the most part of his life he was actively engaged in work. About 57 years ago he married Miss Sarah Holt, a well known young lady of Dunbar township. Mr. Crop was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Vanderhill for 52 years, and an elder in the church for 30 years. He was a devout Christian, a kind husband and an indolent father. He was known throughout the township for his charitable work, and his ready assistance in case of sickness. On several occasions he drove for miles during the night in order to lend assistance to his friends, when he had entered the family. He had a host of friends, who will regret the loss of his death.

His widow and the following grown children survive: W. O. Crop, of New Haven; Isaac S. Crop of Greenwood; Mrs. Harry Worthington of Greenburg; No. 1 and Miss Lucy M. Crop, a home. One brother, Jacob Crop, the well known resident of South Pittsburg, died some years ago. The loss is the loss of Mrs. Sam and McClintock of South Pittsburg street.

ROBBED HOUSES AND STATION.

Judge Kooser Sent Him to the Reformatory With the Remark That He Was Not a Man to Be Turned Loose in the County.

Ralph McClintock, regarded as a terror in the mountains about Ursina, was arrested Tuesday by Officer Thomas Phalin of Connellsville, on a charge of breaking into and robbing the Ursina station of the B. & O. The robbery occurred July 12, and since that time the officer has been working constantly upon the case. McClintock, not finding any money about the station drawers, carried off a chewing gum machine, broke it open in a hollow near the station, and took all the money, eight pennies and the chewing gum from it.

McClintock was arrested and taken before Magistrate W. H. Zufal of Harwoodville, where he entered a plea to breaking and entering and committing robbery. After this he took the officer to the hollow where several parts of the chewing gum machine were found. He was taken to Somerset and his case presented to Judge Kooser, who, in sentencing him, said "I sentenced this man to eighteen months in the reformatory for the robbery of the Ursina station some years ago, and as that did not seem to do him any good, I will commit him to the reformatory, as he appears to be a man of such character as not to be permitted to be at large."

McClintock has terrorized the whole Ursina community from Ursina to Silbough, a distance of about seven miles. His residence near the latter place and it is charged that the numerous robberies committed in the mountain district are traceable to him. He is a dime novel fiend, having a trunk full of Jesse James novels and other half splitters stored away. When not occupied by his family, he spends his time in the mountains, and then would accumulate a wild Western gang. The people of the mountains told Officer Phalin that about every three weeks he would break out. Procuring a large pistol he traveled around the community from Ursina to Silbough, shooting in the air and threatening to hang up everyone and everything. All of them were afraid of him and when they heard McClintock coming on one of his sprees they cleared the track and took to the hill timbers.

Many of the residents of the mountains congratulated the officer on his capture and will now rest easy at night, since he has been taken from the community. There is no telling when the bad man from the mountains will be released, as the Somerset court is familiar with his antics and will probably insist upon his remaining in the Reformatory.

DAN CUPID PLAYS CARDS

At Home of Miss Sara Long and Love God Turned Trump.

L. W. GUIBORD THE HAPPY MAN.

Evening Star First Flashed the Engagement Last February But Girl Kept the Secret Well.

Miss Sara Long of New Haven has proven two things. One is that girls CAN keep a secret. The other is that you never know when a girl has been listening to the tender whispers of the little fellow with rose petals toes and gossamer wings on his shoulders. Both proofs turned up yesterday afternoon in New Haven, when the girl in question played hostess at a card party. She began to steal a march on her sisters in the best social circles in town away last February, when she first saw the evening star twinkling in diamond reflection on her left hand. The other girls didn't know anything about that though and without any anxious concern except in invitation. This week to be guests at a card party announced by the fair hostess as a commitment to Miss Edith Davidson a bride elect of town.

There wasn't more than the usual girl whispering going on at the hostess' home until the last game of cards had been played. Then Dan Cupid suddenly hopped out of the deck of cards, flashed hearts for trumps and awarded the great prize to the hostess herself. Cupid always talks in similes in this instance he went about in little place cards for refreshments in the form of two hours one half smothered by the other and strange to say, one man's face got in to the girl's name—the face of the man whom Miss Long blushing announced to be her husband. His photograph adorned one of the hearts and just across the golden card that linked them twice was her own smiling countenance.

When one explains this much about a girl's card party, what more is there to say? It's the beginning of a life story too long to tell. But this much is already known. Miss Long is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kell Long. All by the way Cupid has been getting into the girl's mill of the father and turning out brides and grooms in pairs, his family this year furnishing two of the town's weddings. And the groom to be? One almost forgets that. His name is L. W. Guibord. He was formerly of Plainfield N. Y. but he is now in Conneltsville as Division Engineer of the H. C. Flick Coke Company, having under his charge the plants in the Leaning district and other points west of the Young. There was an announcement of the date of the wedding.

The gas company writes that it has no capital testing men and the citizens are warned that the men who are going about town testing themselves to be capital gas meter test men are not employed by the City of this town as meter test men. Several of the town's citizens have called them various names to test their own gas meters.

MATCH IN HAMMOCKS

Stranger Set Fire to Goods of Will Ham Heitzberg on Main Street.

A thoughtless prankster yesterday afternoon gave Will Ham Heitzberg a scare that left him a nervous wreck. A match was thrown into a pile of hammocks. The man passed up the street and the match lit and after a few moments it lit the hammocks and the man ran away into the hammocks.

Heitzberg, who is a well known man in the town, was very nervous and did not know what to do. He called the fire department and they came and put out the fire. The man who set the fire was not caught.

WILL CANVASS ENTIRE COUNTRY.

Republicans Adopt Method to Secure Campaign Funds.

FORAKER WILL BE FAITHFUL.

Although Much Humiliated by Not Being Asked to Participate in Opening of Campaign at Youngstown, O., the Senator Declares He is at the Disposal of the National Chairman

New York, August 20.—Several months ago the national Republican committee was at Oyster Bay today as the guests at luncheon of President Roosevelt. The party will include Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock of the national committee, and James S. Sherman, candidate for vice president. Among the subjects to be considered will be certain important issues to be discussed during the campaign.

At Republican headquarters there was a conference between Chairman Hitchcock, Charles F. Brannan of Cincinnati and William L. Ward of New York, both members of the executive committee of the national committee, George R. Sheldon, the treasurer, and Governor J. Franklin Fort of New Jersey. They talked over the question of finances and the division of work between members of the advisory committee.

In addition to the advisory committee of nine members which will aid Treasurer Sheldon and Assistant Treasurer Fred C. Upham in soliciting funds, there will be a financial committee in each state and territory. Each national committee has been empowered to select a man to organize a committee in each state to serve as the chairman thereof. This step indicates that a very thorough canvass of the country is to be made for funds to carry on the Republican campaign work.

Foraker May Speak in East. An effort was made by Mr. Hitchcock to communicate with Senator Foraker of Ohio who was in the city on business but he had gone to Washington. Before leaving the city the senator indicated that he would speak in support of the Republican ticket if invited to do so under the auspices of the national committee, notwithstanding he had not been invited to speak in the Ohio campaign by the men in charge of the work in that state. Chairman Hitchcock will request the senator to address some important meeting in the east.

Discussing the Ohio situation Senator Foraker repeated that he felt humiliated in not having been invited to speak at Youngstown on September 5 at the opening of the Ohio campaign. He said that regarding the Republican ticket he had had with the Roosevelt administration concerning certain policies, he stood ready to do whatever he could to advance the interests of the national ticket.

He said he was in sympathy with every plank in the Chicago platform and that he was a Republican despite anything said against him by political enemies.

Not Thinking of Senatorship. "So far as the senatorship is concerned," said Mr. Foraker "I have not turned my hand one way or the other. I have not tried to influence the election of a single member of the legislature and shall not do so with a view of bettering my chances. The thing to do now is to carry the national election and I certainly shall not prove a hindrance to success even if I am not wanted as a party to it."

Columbus, O. August 20.—Dispatches from New York quote Senator Foraker as saying he had received no invitation from State Chairman Henry A. Williams to attend the opening of the Republican national campaign at Youngstown. Mr. Williams said "I mailed invitations to Senator Foraker to be present at the Youngstown opening and also to participate in the campaign. Both these invitations were mailed Saturday. As I have received no answer to either of the invitations I have no statement to make except the above statement of facts."

TWO REGIMENTS REMAIN

Cost Too Great to Keep Large Number of Soldiers in Springfield. Springfield, Ill. August 20.—Only two regiments of state troops will be left in Springfield tonight. At a conference in the governor's office it was decided to release the Second Infantry from riot duty today, in addition to the Third and Fifth regiments whose departure had been scheduled for the release of the First and Fourth regiments. The troops which will remain on guard here will be the Seventh Infantry and eight troops of the 6th Cavalry.

The conference was between Gov. C. Young and Governor Deeney. The former pointed out that with conditions in their present satisfactory state the expense of keeping the large body of troops here is useless and ascertained that one regiment of infantry and one of cavalry can take care of any riotous demonstration which may arise.

The cavalry can break up any mob which may attempt to assemble," he said. Of course mounted men cannot do the effective patrol work that infantry can in chasing marauders over fences and across fields. For that reason some foot soldiers will be necessary to use with the police and deputy sheriffs. The situation is under absolute control and will remain so.

Phina were also computed for the delivery to the civil authorities of Joseph B. Klein, the Chicago private who snatched Earl Nelson with a bayonet at Kankakee while the regiment was on route to Springfield. The snatching of Klein will be made according to the civil law which is superior to the military law in such cases.

DEMOCRATIC MASCOT ARRIVES AT LINCOLN.

Trick Mule Gives a Great Exhibition on Mr. Bryan's Lawn

Fairview Lincoln Neb. August 20.—William J. Bryan has received from the Minnesota state agricultural society the long-expected trick mule that is to be the mascot of the party this fall. The mule was given a hearty welcome by the candidate and his family.

I am going to have a caucus of newspaper correspondents to select a name for this mascot of mine," declared Mr. Bryan as he led the animal about the lawn by the halter. They tell me that it is the best trained mule in the United States and we will have to properly name it.

The advent of the mule was made memorable because of an incident that occurred. The mule and an eastern newspaper correspondent were the central figures. When announcement was first made of the fact that the animal had been presented the particular correspondent served notice that he would be the first to ride it. As a result the correspondent is nursing a sore head and a bruised leg suffered when he fell into the pit of the mule which had been trained to permit no one to ride it. Mr. Bryan witnessed the proceedings and exhibited a good deal of solicitude for the writer. The mule was taken back into the stable and there is even a likelihood that it will not be permitted to display any more of its talents.

HAINS BROTHERS WILL PLEAD INSANITY.

Coroner's Jury Returns Verdict of Murder in Twenty Minutes

New York, August 20.—Insanity will be the defense put forward on behalf of Captain Peter C. Hains and perhaps of his brother T. Jenkins Hains when they are put on trial for the murder of William E. Annis according to a statement made by former Assistant District Attorney John F. McIntire, who has been retained as chief counsel for the defense.

Either emotional insanity will be the plea made by the brothers or else the defense will contend that Captain Hains was insane at the time of the shooting and that his brother drew a revolver and shot at him because he had been retained as chief counsel for the defense.

The inquest into the death of Annis was held in the town hall at Fishburg. Coroner Ambler presided. Only two witnesses were put on the stand. Captain Peter C. Hains and his brother T. Jenkins Hains. The latter was shot by the other brother. The jury also found that T. Jenkins Hains did and abetted in the commission of the crime for the sole purpose of protecting his brother.

SUICIDE FOLLOWS QUARREL

Wife Ends Life First, Grief Stricken
Husband Follows

New York, August 20.—Following her husband was about to leave her forever Mrs. Edward H. Hains committed suicide by shooting. Her husband who had a long and good life was a series of alterations and started from the Hague Court apartment house where they lived. Upon beholding the lifeless body of his wife he was overcome with grief and remorse and taking the door of the apartment he picked up the revolver with which she had killed herself and ended his own life by shooting himself three times. When the superintendent of the building and employees broke down the door they found husband and wife dead. Hains with his arms clasped about his wife's neck and his lips close to her cheek, as though he died while trying to kiss her.

For a day and a night Hains and his wife had been quarreling. They had been married a little less than two years and it seems that Hains was insanely jealous of his wife.

Pittsburgh, August 20.—John Beagie is in a very serious condition as the result of a fall from a third story window at his boarding house at Broad Rock. He is suffering from a broken right arm, broken left leg and broken jaw. It is supposed that in his sleep he rolled into the street.

WILD STAMPEDE TO JOHNSON.

Minnesota's Governor Renominated by Democrats.

THE NOMINEE REMAINS SILENT

Although Steadfastly Declining to Be a Candidate Again the Ideal of Minnesota's Democracy is Named for the High Honor Over His Protest

Minneapolis, Minn. August 20.—The Democratic state convention opened for Governor John A. Johnson and nominated him for reelection. When the roll call of states was made for the nomination for governor, Mayor Lawler of St. Paul took the platform and the crowd on the lawn mentioned the name of Governor Johnson. One of the widest demonstrations ever seen in a Democratic state convention in Minnesota occurred. Hon. John Johnson rose up, his standard and started a wild march about the hall. Everybody else seemed to join in. Some delegates grouped themselves on the stage, about the picture of Governor Johnson. Band music added to the pandemonium and individuals yelled and cheered for Johnson. Frank Dyer, the governor's representative, immediately stepped out on the building to find a telephone in order to get into communication with the governor at the capital. Minutes after the call was made the delegates yelled excitedly with banners waving the picture of Governor Johnson about the hall.

The convention was wild for Johnson. "Nothing but Johnson," and "Cheer for the cause of All Hains" were played in succession by the band, and still the crowd yelled. The result was inevitable. Nothing could stop the tide of enthusiasm and as soon as the speaker came a subdued sufficiency the governor was named unanimously for gubernatorial candidate.

After the nomination for governor was made the platform was read and adopted. The resolutions favor a constitutional judiciary to be elected by popular election, favor the election of United States senators by popular vote, favor a constitutional amendment and favor a bill to protect the rights of laboring men.

The third nomination of Johnson was made by the delegates. He had previously refused to be a candidate and declared that it was a mistake to campaign would be carried on without a candidate.

St. Paul, August 20.—When it had been decided that the nomination of Johnson would be carried on without a candidate, the delegates to the convention of the Democratic state convention in Minneapolis, Minn., and I have not been officially notified of any nomination and have nothing to say.

Orville Wright to Fly at Fort Myer. Dayton, O. August 20.—Orville Wright started on his flight at Fort Myer. His airplane was shipped Sunday and flew to Washington. It was accompanied by Mr. Taylor, the machine which has been in the work shop of the Wrights ever since they began their experiments in aerial machines. Taylor will be Mr. Wright's assistant in the flight at Fort Myer.

Wright said "I give more power to the weight than any I have ever seen. I shall make short flights until I have thoroughly mastered the ground and measured the distances."

German Aliphin Does Well. Berlin, August 20.—The Duke of Sachsen-Altenburg was at the helm of the Imperial ship during a half hour of most intricate maneuvering. He also participated in a short trip against the wind and obtained a speed of more than 28 miles an hour. The duke expressed astonishment at the wonderful speed with which the ship was steered and the movement of the rudder.

Edie Life in a Rain Barrel. Kalamazoo, Mich. August 20.—Edie, 81, of Kalamazoo, Mich. Mrs. John McInden was six years committed suicide by throwing a large head of lettuce into a rain barrel.

NOT TREATED SO BADLY

Hayes Marathon Winner Returns.

Says He Has No Complaint. New York, August 20.—I have nothing to say against the way the English people treated me," said John J. Hayes, winner of the Marathon race at the Olympic games upon his arrival here on the steamer Occident. His view of the treatment given the American team of athletes at the games in London was voiced by J. P. McInerney, the Cornell runner who was also a passenger on the Occident.

Hayes got a cordial reception at the hotel from a party of friends who had assembled to greet him. Discussing the Marathon race, he said "They thought before the race that the Englishmen were the only ones who had a chance and they naturally were a great deal disappointed when they did not win. Moreover, I was the only American who was mentioned before the race as having any show at all. I don't know anything about the training of the American team. The English was disappointed on the last day of the games. I myself did not have to make a great effort."

"When anything was not particularly pleasant we did not care much," he said. "We knew that I would be made up to me when we got home. I have nothing to say against the way the English people treated me. The English people does not represent the feeling of the English people. I have had a delight in time in England and an especially good one in London. I come home perfectly satisfied."

Vogel a Big City Minstrel. On Wednesday, August 20, at the Seaton, the big city minstrel troupe, the Vogel, gave a performance. The troupe consisted of about 100 men and women. The troupe was very popular and the performance was very successful.

Al Kruger won another game. Untown fans expects to land the night one with a big league club next year.

Untown fans still think that the Connelville team had down to "Marksville" the last time they were there.

Untown is already claiming the pennant, by the Onton's eyes (the Clarkburg Drainers have no show whatever).

POWER HOUSE EXPLODES

In One Inning and Crescents Bat Out a Victory.

After having to make sewed up with a good lead, the Power House went straight up in the air in the fifth inning last night, and suffered defeat at the hands of the Crescents, 5 to 4. Mullin, for the Power House, pitched winning ball with exception of the last inning, when his work was marred by errors of the Crescents' five men. The game ended one of the best and most interesting of the season, although the Crescents did not play up to their usual standard. Long for the Crescents pitched fine ball.

The Power House rooters and players claim that the manager was unfair in his decisions and threatened to leave the field, but they were finally convinced of the error of their ways. The first double-header of the season will be played this afternoon when the South Connellville and White Sox clubs met together for two contests.

For Third Successive Time in the Local Church League.

For the third successive time the First Presbyterian team of the Connellville Church League failed to shine up at the playing field last night, intimating that they have dropped out of the league. MEYERSDALE WINS

Sensational Game from Pittsburg Collegians in Ninth Inning.

Speech to the Courtiers.

MEYERSDALE, Aug. 20.—(Special), the crack team representing Somerset county, pictured the long line of the Pittsburg Collegians' victories yesterday by making one of the most sensational ninth inning finishes ever seen on the local diamond. The Collegians took the lead at the going away with three scores, but this was tied up by Meyersdale in the thirteenth. Meyersdale again scored in the fourth as did the Collegians in the seventh.

With the score a tie the Pittsburghers came to the bat and shinned out four runs. Not to be outdone, Meyersdale banged out five runs and won the game. The crowd almost went wild over the unexpected clean hitting of the home club. The score:

Miners Want Checkweighman.

SMITHTON, Pa., Aug. 20.—(Special).—A slight difference has arisen between the operators and miners at the Empire mine of the Pennsylvania Coal Company at Fitz Leary, near this place. There has been no checkweighman installed at the mine, and the miners want one. President P. Preston of District No. 5, United Mine Workers of America, has dispatched a delegate to Smithton to adduce evidence if possible, in favor of the miners. McKie is the board member sent to settle the dispute.
